

News from Livingston County

MEDIA CONTACT: Heather Grant, Grants & Public Information Coordinator
(585) 243-7051

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Livingston County Board of Supervisors Organizes for 2018 LeFeber Elected Chair; Appoints Mahus as Vice Chair

Geneseo, NY... At a meeting held on January 2, 2018, the Livingston County Board of Supervisors officially organized for the 2018 calendar year and elected the leadership team of the Board. In a unanimous vote, David LeFeber, Avon Town Supervisor, was elected by his peers to serve as Chair succeeding Eric Gott, Livonia Town Supervisor who held the position for four years. Mr. LeFeber then appointed Dennis Mahus, North Dansville Town Supervisor, as his Vice Chair. The Board conducts business through a system of three Committees and the Committee Chairs were also appointed as follows: Ways and Means Chairperson: Dan Pangrazio, Caledonia Town Supervisor; Human Services Chairperson: Brenda Donohue, Conesus Town Supervisor; and Public Services Chairperson: Gerald Deming, York Town Supervisor.

Upon election as Chair, David LeFeber thanked the Board for their support and stated "Thank you for your confidence in my leadership and I look forward to with all of you as well as the department heads and employees of the County."

The Board meets on every second and fourth Wednesday at 1:30 pm. Human Services and Public Services Committee meetings are held the first Tuesday and Wednesday respectively at 9:00 am. Ways and Means Committee meetings are held every second and fourth Monday at 1:30 pm. These meetings are open to the public and residents are encouraged to attend.

####